

VACANT POSITION

1. LECTURER - ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES (1 POST)

Reporting to the Head of Tourism Department

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Teaching Environmental Studies, Ecology and Conservation, wild life studies, Flora and fauna; sustainable Tourism, Touristic Geography and other related subjects
- Developing and reviewing the curriculum for both long and short courses
- Carrying out research and consultancy
- Handling student administration matters

Requirements for the position:

- Bachelor's Degree in Biological Sciences or Natural Resources Management. A master's Degree in Environmental Studies will be an added advantage.
- Knowledge of Environmental Management systems
- Teaching experience of at least 3 years in tertiary level institution.

Other Requirements:

- Computer skills
- Experience in Environmental Management systems
- Experience in Tourism industry will be an added advantage.

The terms of service for the above posts include an attractive remuneration package, Membership to a contributory retirement benefit scheme, a non-contributory medical scheme for self & family and staff insurance among others.

Written applications accompanied by copies of certificates and curriculum vitae giving details of current employment and remuneration package should be addressed in confidence to:

The Principal and Chief Executive Officer
Kenya Utalii College
P.O Box 31052, 00600
NAIROBI.

The closing date for receiving the applications will be Tuesday, 29th August, 2017.

SENIOR PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICER
KENYA UTALII COLLEGE
NAIROBI 14/8/17